

USF2000 Championship

In order for an Entrant and Driver to be eligible to earn awards and points, all Entrant representatives' uniforms, cars and/or other equipment shall display the required emblems unless otherwise approved by Officials (see illustration 1.1). Each emblem must appear as provided and in the designated color schemes unless otherwise approved. Entrants must submit a sample of the vector artwork and must be approved in advance.

- The current USF2000 Championship Series emblem (with presenting sponsor emblem, if applicable), in a minimum dimension of 3.132 inches wide by 2.50 inches high in a prominent area on the top left half of the chest;
- The current four color Mazda Road to Indy emblem (with presenting sponsor emblem, if applicable) in a minimum dimension of 3.5 inches wide by 2.359 inches high in a prominent area on the top right half of the chest.
- The emblem(s) of any USF2000 Championship Series sponsor(s). This includes without limitation the following:
 1. Cooper tire emblem in a minimum dimension of 4 inches by 1 inch in a prominent area on the top upper right half of the chest;
 2. Mazda emblem in a minimum dimension of 1 inch by 5 inches in a prominent area on the top upper left half of the chest;
 3. Peak Performance emblem in a minimum dimension of 2.75 inches by 2 inches in a prominent area on the top left sleeve;
 4. VP emblem in a minimum dimension of 2 inches by 2.5 inches in a prominent area on the top left sleeve; and
 5. Performance Friction Brakes emblem in a minimum dimension of 1.25 inches by 3 inches in a prominent area on the top right sleeve.

1.1
Firesuit

Uniform

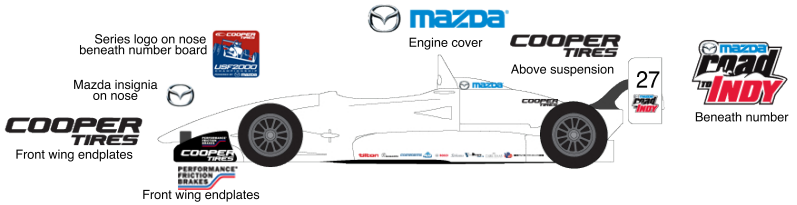

USF2000 Championship

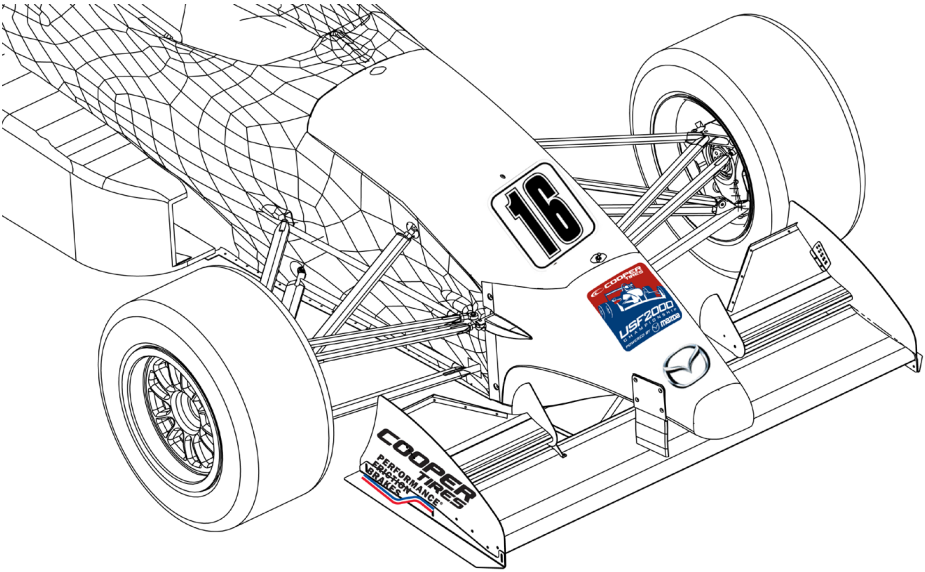

Emblem Display on Cars

All Cars must display the required emblems unless otherwise approved by Officials (see illustration 1.2).

1.2

Lower sidepod decal strip:

Emblem Display on Transporters

All transporters must display the current USF2000 Championship Series emblem(s) (with presenting sponsor emblem, if applicable) in a minimum dimension of 2 feet by 2 feet in a designated location unless otherwise approved by Officials.